

MODERN SCHOOL, VAISHALI

Report on Class Function – Grade 4

Modern School moving abreast with the Holistic development of its children, organized You, Me, Us...Growing Together —The Cultural program presented by Class IV, Which laid emphasis on parental love and their role in a child's life?

The Event included dance, music, scene enactments and very lively Nukkad Natak

The high spirited program was applauded by the audience mostly our esteemed parents. Some important messages were conveyed through the scene enactments like giving importance to sports, respecting the elders and for parents spending quality time with their children. The celebration was indeed stupendous with the active efforts of the students as well as their teachers.

